Property Description

Welcome to this gorgeous, recently renovated and extended detached residence on the highly desirable Trafalgar Road in Birkdale, Southport just a short 0.5-mile walk from the iconic Royal Birkdale Golf Course, making it an ideal base for guests attending The Open 2026. This spacious home sleeps up to eight guests across four beautifully appointed bedrooms and features two full bathrooms, a downstairs WC and four versatile reception rooms including a large open-plan living area, a separate lounge, and a formal dining room. The stylish kitchen is perfect for entertaining, flowing seamlessly into a generous garden and patio area that offers privacy and is not overlooked at the rear. Additional features include underfloor heating, triple-glazed windows, modern appliances and a separate utility/laundry room. The property also benefits from off-road parking for up to five cars and is situated on a private road with restricted public access during major events. Guests will enjoy easy access to Birkdale Village, with its vibrant mix of bars, restaurants, shops, and beauty services, as well as nearby sports clubs and two train stations Hillside and Birkdale both within walking distance. This exceptional home blends period character with contemporary luxury, offering a refined and comfortable retreat for enjoying The Open and the best of Southport.
